The shift from adolescence to adulthood, a recently identified stage of life called and quoted;emerging adulthood, and quoted; covers an increasing span of years in todays culture (roughly ages 18-30) due to later marriages and extended education. They provide a and quoted;practical theology and quoted; for emerging adult ministry and offer insight into the key developmental issues of this stage of life, including identity, intimacy and sexuality, morality, church involvement, spiritual formation, vocation, and mentoring.
