Steven Dworman Enterprises, Incorporated, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 175 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .20th Anniversary of Infomercials Marked By Tell-All Book of Industry Secrets. Whether you love them or hate them, they've become an integral part of our television experience. They've told us everything we ever wanted to know about slicing, dicing, slimming, and toning. From BluBlocker sunglasses to the Psychic Friends Network, they've managed to capture our interest and our dollars for the last twenty years while introducing us to innovative products and some entertaining personalities . . . But wait, there's more! In Steven Dworman's new book $12 Billion of Inside Marketing Secrets Discovered Through Direct Response Television Sales, the entrepreneurs behind this truly American phenomenon reveal the successes and failures that made direct response television what it is today. Written in an interview format, the book presents the personal experiences of twenty-three of the industry's leaders in their own words. This invaluable information has never been publicly shared before, states author Steven Dworman. But what is truly extraordinary is the entrepreneurs' personal story of starting with nothing and building $100 million dollar and up businesses! The passion of each of these individuals comes through clearly in the interviews, whether it's for the product, the marketing process, or for free enterprise generally. The story of Jay Kordich, whose Juiceman infomercial was the culmination of a very personal 40 year mission to promote the value of juicing, is truly inspiring. Readers looking for technical information will not be disappointed. Candid conversations reveal each insider's personal successes and failures while passing along tips and tricks of the trade. In a particularly interesting section of his interview, Tony Robbins shares his experience...
