Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Continental Teutons: Published Under the Direction of the Committee of General Literature and Education, Appointed by the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge Tacitus, from whom we obtain the fullest account of the Germans of the first or second century, is influenced, no doubt, by a disposition to contrast the degenerate Vices of Roman civilization with the frank and manly virtues of the barbarians nevertheless, whatever allowance we make for this political bias, we cannot fail to recognise in his pages a genuine representation, in its broader lines, of the primitive German character. It may be remarked that he differs from Caesar in asserting that the Germans also held Mercurius in the highest honour among their deities, and paid worship also to Mars and Hercules.
