This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Essay from the year 2000 in the subject Politics - International Politics - Region: Western Europe, grade: 2, Cardiff University (School of European Studies), course: British Society and Culture, 5 entries in the bibliography, language: English, comment: As this essay shows there is a great difference between quality and tabloid press. The amount and quality of given information alone is much higher in the quality press. But this is a comparison between The Times and The Sun. Consequently as a conclusion I have to say that in spite of the high register and brilliant language, The Times is not critical enough to show todays capitalism a firm way in its future. This newspaper is loyal to the government, the monarchy and christianity. , abstract: In the UK you can find a wide range of newspapers. In general you can divide them into quality and popular press. Quality newspapers are The Guardian, The Daily Telegraph, The Times, The Independent and The Financial Times. The popular press consists of The Daily Mirror, The Daily Express, The Daily Star and The Sun. You can also find a lot of regional newspapers; for example The Evening Standard (London, popular press oriented), The South Wales Echo (South Wales, popular press oriented) and The Western Mail ( Wales, more quality press oriented). In this essay I will refer to the popular press as tabloid press. The aim of this essay is to compare quality press and tabloid press. This I will do with two examples: The Times and The Sun. So the question might arise why I chose just those two newspapers They are both reflective of their field and are recognized...
