Becky Lawrence was a recent Harvard Law graduate. While she was in college she worked as a law clerk for Judge Charles Woodbury. When the Judge invites her for lunch, she accepts his invitation unbeknown how the meeting would change her life. Overnight Becky Lawrence turns into Rebecca D. Lawrence, Assistant U.S. Attorney. She is assigned to work for Zach Woods, Senior Assistant U.S. Attorney. Zach has the reputation that he will stop at nothing to win a case. Working with Zach creates an instant chemistry Becky never anticipated. Although he is married with a family, his pursuit of Becky is obvious. Zach and Becky s chemistry is explosive. Together they singe the pages as they explore their feelings for each other. To complicate matters more, the courthouse is alive with the ghost of a victim that never got justice there. Becky believes in justice, in an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth. Don t you? The sad reality is not every wrong gets righted, at least not in the way the scales of justice would have us believe . sometimes deals must be struck and victims get sacrificed. It s a double whammy for them. Hence, the ghost of one victim sitting in on proceedings because he just can t let go. Written by a Former Federal Official...
