Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The White House The Recent experience of our Government on the Mexican border demonstrated the essential weaknesses of our military system. I shall attempt to point these out, indicate some of the contributing causes and make bold to suggest a plan for a military system. It is dignifying these suggestions to refer to them in the aggregate as a plan. Any thorough plan for a military system must take into consideration not only strictly military matters, but industrial conditions as they may affect our military policy. I shall make no reference to the necessary changes in our industrial organization in aid of our military requirements, nor shall I speak of the facilities for producing a greater number of army officers, and the organization of our forces, and their division into the different arms of the service. Neither shall I speak of any plan for the equipment of the army; the required number of field guns, aeroplanes, poison gas generators and other machinery of war, essential for military operations. The only feature of the general plan...
